ORDER

AND NOW, this _____ day of June, 2003, upon consideration of Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment (docket no. 6), and after a hearing on the issue of damages, it is ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion is GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that:

1. Judgment is entered in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendant in the amount of $143,330.00 plus interest at the rate of $19.20 per day from June 12, 2003 to the date of any Marshal's Sale or other sale of the property at issue.
2. The promisory note and mortgage between Plaintiff and Defendant are foreclosed as to the real property described therein. In accordance with Section 204(1) of the National Housing Act, there is no right of redemption in the mortgagor or any other person.
3. The real property described therein shall be sold as follows:
 - (a) The United States Marshal for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania is directed to sell the real property specified in the mortgage between Plaintiff and Defendant for cash to the highest bidder at a public judicial sale pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2001 within 180 days of this Order. Notice must be given, in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 2002, once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the sale in one newspaper regularly issued and of general circulation in the county and judicial district where the real estate is situated; Plaintiff may advertise a short description of the property rather than a complete legal description.

(b) Ten percent (%10) of the highest bid must be deposited by certified check or cashier's check with the United States Marshal by the bidder immediately upon the property being struck down to the bidder. The balance of the purchase money must be paid by certified or cashier's check by the highest bidder to the Marshal within ten (10) days after the sale is confirmed by the Court, without demand for the same being made by the Marshal. It is the highest bidder's responsibility to ascertain the date of confirmation. If the highest bidder fails to settle, all his rights in the real estate shall cease and be completely void and the property may be re-advertised and sold by the Marshal without further order of the Court at the risk of the defaulting bidder whose deposit shall be forfeited; and in case of a deficiency on such resale, he shall make good the same to the person thereby injured. The highest bidder shall take the real estate subject to and shall pay all current state and local taxes, water rents or charges, sewer rents or charges, and municipal claims, and any other claims, charges and liens against the property which are not divested by the Marshal's sale, and shall pay all state, local and federal transfer taxes and stamps. If Plaintiff is not the successful bidder, Plaintiff will automatically be registered as the second highest bidder at the judgment amount and may proceed to make settlement with the Marshal in the event of default by the highest bidder.

(c) Plaintiff or its nominee is granted right of entry at reasonable times to the subject premises for purposes of pre-sale inspection and Marshal's sale with the right to inspect the house, the books, records and accounts, all other items, things and information necessary for the inspection, advertisement and sale of the subject premises.

(d) A motion for confirmation of the public sale shall be filed in this Court by the Marshal or Plaintiff within 30 days after the date of sale.

4. Upon confirmation of the sale, the Marshal shall hold the proceeds of the sale (after costs and expenses of the sale) pending distribution pursuant to further Order of this Court.

5. Plaintiff shall be paid the amount adjudged due pursuant to the distribution of the proceeds of the sale.

6. A true copy of this Order and decree shall be delivered to the United States Marshal by the Clerk.

7. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter for the granting of such orders and decrees as the circumstances may require.

BY THE COURT:

BRUCE W. KAUFFMAN, J.
